

CEDAR RAPIDS CORVETTE CLUB
BY-LAWS

1. Membership in the Club is limited to owners or prospective owners of Chevrolet Corvettes, or Corvette enthusiasts, who are eighteen years of age or older. If an applicant has not attained legal majority age according to the laws of his state of residence, he must submit a statement or parental consent, signed by a legal guardian and properly notarized.
2. To join CRCC a prospective member must fulfill the requirement of By-law #1 and attend two Club functions. They then must be voted in by a majority of members present at an official meeting.
3. The Club may determine the amount of an initiation fee, if any, and set other club dues. All dues are payable to CRCC by its members.
4. The Club officers shall consist of a President, Vice-President, Secretary, Treasurer, Governor, Director of Social Activities, Editor, Historian, three Trustees, Homecoming Chairman and a Competition Director. These officers shall be voted into office by a majority of the members by official secret ballot. Officers shall be elected on a yearly basis, except Trustees, who will be elected for a three-year term, with nominations being made at the November meeting. The results will be released at the annual Christmas banquet. Office shall run from January 1st to December 31st.
5. All officers may be re-elected for consecutive terms except the President and Trustees. The President may serve two consecutive one year terms. A Trustee must be off the Board for one year, before being elected to another three year term.
6. Official meeting will be held monthly.
7. All functions of the Club will be decided at official meetings only. The Executive Board, consisting of all elected officials, will meet at the start of each year, and anytime thereafter as needed, to discuss special problems and make recommendations to the regular membership.
8. Any member in frequent violation of City and State laws, traffic or other, will be suspended from the Club for an indefinite period. This suspension shall be lifted only by a majority vote of members present at an official meeting.
9. The By-laws may be revised and will be ratified annually by 2/3 majority of members at the November business meeting. Quorum for other votes is defined as a majority of those in attendance at the monthly business meeting. Each new member, upon joining CRCC, will receive a copy of the By-Laws. By-Laws will be posted on the Club website for members to access, and copies will be kept by the Secretary and will be available upon request.
10. The Executive Board shall appoint a person to complete a term of office if an officer resigns a position. If the President resigns, the Vice-President will take over and a new Vice-President will be appointed by the Executive Board.
11. (deleted, 11/19/2009, out of date)
12. Members of CRCC may run for, or hold more than one office in the same year if there are no other nominees for said office.
